Crowd Didn't Exhibit Glad Hand When Explorer Appeared at Railroad Station.

By Sun Leased Wire, Truro, N. S., Sept. 22.-Commander Peary on his way from Sydney to Eagle Island, Me., had his fame totally celipsed today by a crowd of Nova Scotian brides,

Wednesday seems to be marrying day among the Scotch of mid-Nova cotia and seven brides who boarded the train with their blushing swains within a distance of seventy-five miles filled the eyes of the villages along the line of the Inter-Colonial railway to the total exclusion of the man who climbed to the top of the earth,

In one instance the pervading bymeneal atmosphere of New Glasgow rought embarrassment to the commander. When the train pulled in there at 3 o'clock there was a crowd of 300, all decked out in their Sunday clothes, down at the station. They fere cheering and surging around the ps of the single Pullman on the
